KISS 'EM GOOD-BYE JOEY!!

LOVE ~~SEX~~ With Carlo

Well this is it! Summer is just around the corner, and we all know about those summer romances. As you may or may not have noticed, I've changed the title of this column from "Sex with Carlo" to "Love with Carlo". This is because I would like to leave you with some thoughts on relationships before you go running off into the summer.

For those of you who are not in a relationship, it's not really that bad. It can actually be very rewarding. When meeting someone of the opposite sex, be honest with them, that's right people, in this day and age, you need to trust the person, or else you're never going to get anywhere. So forget my "Top 9 1/2 Pick-Up lines", those are only for those who do not wish to pursue a long-term relationship.

When you finally get that person of your dreams, treat them with respect and the ideal that they deserve only the best. YOU! Guys don't feel shy to hold open the door for her. Chivalry is not dead! Girl's, as much as you don't like to, please accept our compliments. If you keep shrugging them off, you may not get them anymore!

Try to keep a happy balance between the emotional/physical parts of the relationship. Believe it or not, SEX is not the be all or end all of a good relationship. Don't let sexual pressure ruin a good thing, just give it time, and it will happen.

For those of you in a relationship, make sure you keep telling your partner how much they mean to you. If you don't, you may not get the chance again. Like the saying goes, "You don't know a good thing until it's gone!". Just try to imagine being without your partner, and that should make you realize just how much you care for them. When meeting the family members, don't forget to try your hardest to get along. Good relations with the relatives is always easier.

Last but not least, keep things exciting, there is nothing worse for relationship than boredom. Good love to you.

Carlo Gambale

Tuesday April 27, 1993 saw the end of Joey the Man and the beginning of Joey the IT. Joey came into this world no more than 6 months ago and unlike most creatures will not leave this life how he it came into it.

It is safe to say that Joey had no decision in this matter and if he did let me tell you, it would not have come to this.

It is now May and Joey has yet to show his it's face to the public. Joey, to this point has refused any interviews and will not make any comment over phone. One has to believe that this poor kitty of consequence must be in a severe state of shock and disbelief that it's owners would do such a thing to a young male not yet in his prime.

Neither Jocelyn Dance or Susan Evans could be reached for comment but a representative for the two, one Mario DiCarlo said "The cat deserved everything he had coming, even the declawing!", it was to this reporter's surprise that declawing was also involved.

In memory of Joey, we all cross our legs for you.

ASK ALICE

Yes She's back!! The lovable Maid from the "Brady Bunch" is here to answer all your questions about life and love.

DEAR ALICE: Yesterday I came home and found my girlfriend in bed with my best friend. Needless to say this really hurt my feelings and destroyed my trust in all females. What should I do.

Sad Guy.

DEAR SAD GUY: Seeing that you have no trust in females, what the hell are you asking my for? But seriously, as I used to tell Greg when this happened to him, "Hey what about Marsha? You know she's not really your sister."

DEAR ALICE: My brothers were out playing football in the yard the yesterday when the football hit me in the face. My nose swelled up like a balloon!! I have a date with the cutest guy in the school, and I look like a big elephant. What do I do?!

Big Nose

DEAR BIG NOSE: Is that your nose or are you eating a banana? Just kidding. This exact same thing happened to Marsha and she ended up fine. All that we did was delay the shooting of the big date scene till her nose went down. So I suggest that you either postpone the date or get really drunk and wear a lampshade on your head for the next little while.

NOTE TO READERS: I have been getting a lot a mail from readers asking me what happened to Sam the Butcher.

I am sorry to say that he died from colon cancer. To much red meat.

FAREWELL FROM ST. JAMES STUDENT COUNCIL

This years Student Administrative Council from St. James would like to thank all those who came out and took part in the many events and activities put on this year. A special thank you also goes out to all those who made the effort to come out and help with these events. In particular we would like to thank the Divisional Representatives that fulfilled their duties as student reps. and congratulate them for their hard work. Another Special thank-you goes to Mario DiCarlo who for the past several years has been the Business Manager for the St. James Student Council. This year marks his last year of service with us at George Brown and we would like to let him know that all his hard work was appreciated (Especially those in-depth meetings over the Billiard green. Ha Ha) Thank-You Mario, and Good-Luck. A final farewell and good-luck to all you fellow students and see ya later!
